LEXINGTON, LAFAYETTE COUNTY, MISSOURI, FRIDAY, JULY 19, 1912

NO. 29

Mrs. William Lineback Dead.

Mrs. William Lineback died very suddenly Wednesday night at about twelve o'clock. She had not been very well for sometime, but had retired Wednesday night feeling no worse. About midnight she got up presumably for a drink of water and dropped dead on the floor.

Mrs. Lineback was born in August, 1848, and would have been 64 years old next month. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Phillip Galle of Higginsville, and Mrs. Geo. Mudd of Lexington. Also one brother, Judge Zach W. Wright, who is the only surviving member out of a family of nine children.

The funeral services conducted by Rev. C. M. Davenport will be held at the home at 9 o'clock this morning.

Miss Katherine Long Dead.

Geo. M. Long received notice Friday evening of the death of his sister, Miss Katherine Long of St. Louis, who died Friday of old age and general debility. Miss Long has been an invalid all of her life—almost completely paralyzed for the last fifteen years. She is survived by five brothers, Geo. M. and Jos. L. Long of this city, Killian Long of Mont Vista, Colorado, Henry Long and Father John Long, of St. Louis.

Judge Rich Detained at Home.

Judge John A. Rich, who is a candidate for Judge for the Kansas City Court of Appeals, has been forced through the critical illness of his daughter to practically abandon his campaign. The many friends of Judge Rich throughout the district should redouble their efforts to secure for him the nomination. He is deserving of the sympathy and support of every Democrat in the district. Every effort should be made to roll up a safe majority for him at the primary.

Fire on Bloom Street.

Thursday the fire department was called out to fight a small blaze on the property of Ike Gratz on Bloom street. The out houses caught fire from some burning trash and were destroyed before the fire fighter reached there. No insurance.

John McDonald spent Sunday in Higginsville.

Thomas Leahey Dead.

Thomas Leahey an old citizen of East Lexington, died Sunday evening at his home from old age and general debility.

Mr. Leahey was born in Ireland, August 9, 1937. He came to this country in 1855, and first located at Chapel Hill. He was married in Chapel Hill to Miss Fizia Mosher, in 1858, when they moved to Lexington. He is survived by his wife and four daughters, Mrs. Chas. Gaffin and Mrs. Elias Spruce of this city, Mrs. Eliza Mayer of St. Louis, and Mrs. F. M. Grogan of Pueblo, Colorado.

The funeral was held from the residence Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock. The services were conducted by Dr. E. C. Gordon.

E. J. F. Luehrman Dead.

E. J. F. Luehrman, an old and respected citizen of this county, died Monday morning at his home one mile east of Lexington. Mr. Luehrman had been an invalid for some time. He was a native of Germany, and was 71 years old. He is survived by his wife and eight children.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the German Methodist church. The services were conducted by Rev. Otto Schulze, pastor of the German Evangelical church.

Gray-Sage.

Mr. Leroy Gray formerly of Lexington, who has been employed in Kansas City for the past year, was married Monday at high noon to Miss Myrtle Sage, of Olathe, Kansas, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sage, of that city. Mr. and Mrs. Gray arrived in Lexington Monday evening to visit his mother, Mrs. Emma Gray. After their visit they will return to Kansas City where they will make their home.

Albert Young went to Kansas City yesterday to spend the day on business.

Misses Pearl and Rose Bour went to Page City yesterday for a short visit.

Mrs. J. E. Robinson went to Kansas City yesterday for a few days' visit.

Mrs. Geo. W. Hyde left yesterday for a visit in Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Forger Caught.

Walter Calmese and John Knox, two Lexington youngsters, who passed some poor paper on Mr. E. Z. Mark here last week, were caught in Kansas City Saturday and brought to Lexington and placed in jail. There were two checks involved, one for $6.00 and the other for $10.00. John R. Potts' name was forged to both by Walter Calmese. John Knox had one check cashed, and is held for passing a forged check. After securing the money they crossed the river and took a train at the Junction for Kansas City, where they were arrested.

An unknown traveler Wednesday evening took on too much liquid refreshment, displayed his coin to some negroes, was pulled in the alley back of the postoffice by the same negroes and relieved of his surplus capital. A negro has been arrested. The unknown was seen to pass up the street yesterday morning, possibly to repeat his intemperance of the day before.

Mr. Murphy, a representative of the Kansas City Star and of William R. Nelson, was in town Tuesday looking up recruits for the Big Bull Moose party. Mr. Murphy was a caller at this office and impressed the writer as a man having too much sense to be chasing around the country on such a foolish mission.

1912 Blue Book.

The Automobile Official 1912 Blue Book of the principal automobile routes in the western states has been received at this office. A feature of the book most interesting to Lexingtonians is the map of the new Cross State Highway, and a page write-up of the Santa Fe and Boon's Lick Trail.

Mrs. Mary Marquis went to Higginsville yesterday for a short visit.

FOR SUPREME JUDGE

Missouri Editors Endorse Hon. Perry S. Rader as Democratic Candidate for Division Number One.

Dear Sir:

We, the undersigned editors of North Central Missouri, unqualifiedly endorse Hon. Perry S. Rader as Democratic candidate for Supreme Judge, Division Number 1, and appeal to all other Democratic editors in the State to rally to his support.

Perry S. Rader spent many years of his life in North Central Missouri, and we have known him as a worthy young man earning the money to obtain a classical education; as the aggressive editor of the Howard County Advertiser and Brunswick Brunswicker; as an eminent lawyer in Howard, Charleston, Randolph and Saline counties; as a patriotic student of his State, writing the first school history of Missouri, and a civil government that is now the text book used in the schools throughout the commonwealth and as the Reporter of the Supreme Court, chosen from a field of fourteen lawyers of high standing. In each of these pursuits, Perry S. Rader has been a pronounced success, proving himself to be a man of the highest efficiency, ability and fidelity.

Perry S. Rader is a man of unimpeachable integrity and the highest character. He would bring to the Supreme Court the judicial poise and ripe experience of twenty-four years as a practicing lawyer and fifteen years as Reporter of the Supreme Court, during which time he has written the syllabus of more than six thousand opinions and supervised the publication of more than one hundred of the Missouri Reports, has given him the advantage of a judicial training that pre-eminently qualifies him for the bench.

Knowing Perry S. Rader as we do, we believe him to be an ideal candidate for Supreme Judge. He is but fifty-two years old, in the prime of life, fitted by nature and training to render diligent, faithful, efficient, courageous and upright service. He is a true Democrat, known as a forceful and effective speaker, who never fails to render his party distinguished service, both in its councils and public forum. Manly, sincere, free of duplicity and outspoken for the right, he is a candidate whom all men trust and who, if nominated would bring strength to the ticket.

In pressing his claims, we do not seek to lessen your interest in the candidates for Division Number 2, two of whom you will be called upon to support. Our only aim is to interest you in seeing that the one choice you are permitted to make for Division Number 1, shall be that of the only candidate for Supreme Judge from the great central and northern portion of the State—the ripe scholar, noted author, successful editor, able lawyer, loyal Democrat and high-class gentleman, Hon. Perry S. Rader.

His nomination is so eminently fit and proper from every viewpoint, that we take the liberty of urging you to join us in his support.

Fraternally yours,

J. Kelly Pool, Editor of Centralia Courier.

C. J. Walden, Editor of Booneville Advertiser.

Omar D. Gray, Editor of
